HELENA DAWN YAH

She is currently studying under Natasha Boyarsky at the prestigious Yehudi Menuhin School, with the support of the National Arts Council, Singapore (Gifted Young Artists Bursary—Overseas) and the Lee Foundation.

Dawn passed her Grade 8 Violin Exam when she was 9, and obtained the Associate Diploma in Violin Recital(ATCL) when she was 11. The following year she won 2nd Prize and a Distinction Award in the 6th Asian Youth Music Competition. She debuted with the National University of Singapore Symphony Orchestra (NUSSO) when she was 14.

DAWN HAS BEEN PLAYING THE VIOLIN SINCE AGE 2, AND HAD HER FIRST PUBLIC PERFORMANCE WHEN SHE WAS 3 AND PERFORMED SOLO AT AGE 11, AT THE COMUNE DI PORTO SAN GIORGIO IN ITALY.

M'Ode Orchestra

is composed of dedicated musicians with many years of performance experience, excellent qualifications and most importantly, a deep and sincere love of music. previously known as the Joyful Sound Orchestra, has already brought smiles and song through a Christmas concert in support of the Children's Cancer Foundation in 2010 and an interactive children's concert for NTUC Baby's Day Out 2011.

CONDUCTOR MR. LIM SOON LEE

Mr Lim Soon Lee is currently the Associate Principal of String Performance at SOTA and the Music Director cum Resident Conductor of NUS Symphony Orchestra where he continues to live his passion for the development of the local youth music scene.
